

In church, Saturday, October 27, 2007

Spoken by her husband Frank

As I start this last day with my Elizabeth. I'm sorry it's not a nice day. First I want to thank Barb Hasse and Joan Jarvis, who are here. You knew her long before I knew her. I thank you for your friendship all these years, so many years. As years went on we have made so many dear friends who are here today too.

My Elizabeth was my wife, my friend. We had 54 years of togetherness like no one else. She was kind. Would never hurt anyone. We had something many people have.

She raised our 2 boys, took care of the house. When she was younger she loved working out in the yard and flower beds. She was a kind and gentle person. She was such a big help to me. I never dreamed or thought my Elizabeth would leave first. She always said she hoped she would pass on first.

All of you who knew her, lost a dear friend and someone special. I thank God for knowing all of you who are here. Should you go first and I remain, one thing I'd have you do would be to walk slowly down that long lone path, for soon I'll follow you.

I'll want to know each step you take, so that I may walk the same someday down that lonely road. You will hear me call your name.

My Elizabeth, I love you, I miss you today, tomorrow and I will miss you forever.

I love you all.